About Barnegat

Barnegat is a 33.62 square mile township in southern New Jersey with a population of approximately 20,308. It lies in the south-central coastal portion of Ocean County, adjoining Barnegat Bay.

Situated within minutes of the Garden State Parkway, US Route 9 and Route 72, Barnegat provides convenient access to major mid-Atlantic cities plus quick, easy routes to:

- Philadelphia and Atlantic City's International Airports and Rail Terminals
- Atlantic City casinos
- Six Flags Great Adventure theme park
- Victorian Cape May and the Cape May County Zoo
- Beaches of Long Beach Island

Rich in tradition, Barnegat's early settlement and development can be attributed to Barnegat Bay. Barnegat Township was one of the leading sea ports in the region. Today, Barnegat Bay offers

- Public dock & boardwalk
- Boat launching facilities
- Crabbing and fishing
- Bathing beach

Within Barnegat Township there is a Historic District with

- Parks
- Antique stores
- Gift shops & boutiques
- Ice cream parlors
- Restaurants
- Museums

Additional shopping, restaurants and recreational opportunities are located nearby in Stafford Township, Long Beach Island, Toms River and along Route 9.
